

Fridays on the Plaza

The Fries Band

Friday, June 10 • 7:30 PM

With a focus on complex vocal harmonies that are primarily driven by acoustic guitars, the band presents a unique and engaging treatment of popular and obscure cover songs from the 60s, 70s, and 80s. They blend acoustic guitars with keyboards, bass, and drums to re-create very distinctive musical arrangements of bands like Crosby Stills Nash & Young, America, The Beatles, Eagles, Jimmy Buffett, and more. Presented by Troy Main Street with sponsorship from Bank of America Home Loans.

Ticket to Ride

Friday, July 15 • 7:30 PM

Ticket to Ride invites you “across the universe” on a “magical mystery tour” exploring the Beatle’s “revolution” in popular music and culture. Employing authentic “Beatle” instruments, amplifiers, and costumes, coupled with faithful renditions of your favorite Beatle classics, “Ticket” recreates the spirit of the “Fab Four” in ways that have audiences raving about them “eight days a week.” Presented by Troy Main Street with sponsorship from Patty Rose & Associates, Allstate Insurance-(937) 332-6942; Unity National Bank; Le Doux’s; LaBella Viaggio.

Blue Storm

Friday, July 22 • 7:30 PM

This Ohio-based band presents a variety of traditional, contemporary, and progressive bluegrass, as well as southern gospel. Their new country songs are given a bluegrass feel by the band. They also honor requests, so come with your favorite in mind! Presented by Troy-Hayner Cultural Center.

Touch

Friday, June 17 • 7:30 PM

Touch is the area’s premier “old school” and Motown Sound tribute band. These five entertaining men from Dayton have been delighting audiences all over the country for over a decade. They perform hits from artists including The Four Tops, Marvin Gaye, The O’Jays, Smokey Robinson, The Temptations, and many more. Their energetic dance performance is sure to bring the audience to their feet. Presented by Troy-Hayner Cultural Center.

Red Hot Rhythm Review

Friday, July 29 • 7:30 PM

Complete with a full rhythm section, dynamic horns, and powerful vocals, Red Hot Rhythm Review will again fill the Plaza with their energetic arrangements of R&B, funk, and classic dance tunes with a smattering of tunes from the hot pop artists of today. Presented by Troy Main Street with sponsorship from Burger King.

Lipbone Redding & The Lipbone Orchestra

Friday, August 5 • 7:30 PM

Inventive singer/songwriter/guitarist /voice-instrumentalist and former subway musician, Lipbone Redding and his two man orchestra rev up the party and create original songs that effervesce with New Orleans swing, Memphis grooves and New York City style. Known for his ability to use his vocals to sound exactly like a trombone, it’s hard to tell the difference -- unless you witness the phenomenon live! Presented by Troy-Hayner Cultural Center.

Juggernaut Jug Band

Friday, July 8 • 7:30 PM

What do you get when you blend jazz, blues, ragtime, swing and original music with washboards, washtubs, kazoos, jugs and various other sundry hardware? Nothing less than the strange concoction called The Juggernauts. Each performance is a challenge to the audience to have as much fun as the band. Don’t let their antics fool you though. Their exuberant music is the result of skillfully conceived arrangements and unique vocal harmonies. Presented by Troy-Hayner Cultural Center.
